

Respondents answered as below when asked: roughly how much extra would you be prepared to pay for your energy bills per year by 2020:

	Nothing	£100	£200	£300	£400	£500	More than £500
To make sure sources of energy are more environmentally friendly	58%	29%	7%	3%	1%	1%	1%
To make sure the lights stay on in the future	50%	34%	9%	3%	1%	1%	1%

Respondents answered as below when asked: how worried, if at all, are you that the UK is reliant on importing gas from other countries:

Very worried	A little worried	Not worried
31%	51%	18%

Respondents answered as below when asked: to what extent do you agree or disagree with the following statement: 'It is vital to stick to Government plans for creating a low carbon power industry even if it means higher bills':

Net: agree	Strongly agree	Somewhat agree	Neither agree nor disagree	Somewhat disagree	Strongly disagree	Net: disagree
25%	4%	21%	33%	29%	13%	42%

Respondents answered as below when asked: to what extent do you agree or disagree with the following statements:

	Net: agree	Strongly agree	Somewhat agree	Neither agree nor disagree	Somewhat disagree	Strongly disagree	Net: disagree
It's better to have more nuclear power facilities, than to have a higher level of carbon	53%	20%	33%	29%	10%	8%	18%